

FIRST ANNUAL ANCOR STUDY TOUR
EASTERN EUROPE
Romania/Moldova/Prague
April 28- May 8, 2007

As you have already read in the accompanying information, and preliminary itinerary, this tour is a very special opportunity for a limited number of ANCOR VIPs to visit ANCOR international members in Romania and Moldova. You'll wind up your tour with a two-day stay in Prague. Accommodations throughout the trip will run the gamut from group homes, a camp (cabins at the recently built first wheelchair accessible camp in Romania) in the mountains, host families and a limited number of hotels. Travel arrangements, including air and ground transportation and accommodations, will be made for you. A preliminary estimate of cost per person for the trip would be approximately $2,500- $3,000. (including accommodations, transportation, food, and airfare estimated on r/t flight from DC – note airfare might run higher based upon where you are located in the US). This estimate does not include any individual costs for passport or visa processing or any incidentals. There is a limit on the number of participants, so this is first come – first served!

Note: that there is a good possibility that accommodations may require sharing space with another ANCOR member participant (i.e., cabin @camp, possibly a group home accommodation)

Please indicate your interest in being part of this historic First ANCOR Study Tour to Eastern Europe.
